ANTI RAGGING COMMITTEE

Anti Ragging Committee 2013-2018

Compliance Report in Respect of Ragging Regulations

All arrangements have already been made by the institution for the compliance of the UGC instructions for curbing the menace of ragging in the Campus.

No case of ragging has ever been reported or detected in the college during half a century of its existence. However, the following steps have been taken as preventive precautionary measures:-

- 1) An Anti-ragging committee and an Anti - Ragging squad have been formed in strict conformity with the instructions contained in the Regulations. A Nodal officer to connect the college with higher controlling institutions has also been appointed.
- 2) Requisite information as called for by the UGC and the University has been posted in the college website.
- 3) Warning about ragging and the penal and statutory punishments that await the offenders have been incorporated in the college hand book and admission prospectus. The contact numbers of anti ragging helpline and the anti ragging committee, squad, faculty, hostel wardens etc. have also been posted in the same.
- 4) Affidavits in English is made available to the students and their parents to sign at the time of admission to the college and the College hostel.
- 5) On the opening day of the first term, the Principal addresses the new entrants and their parents and explains the expected code of conduct, and also stresses the resolve to fight ragging.
- 6) Hoardings of anti-ragging measures are posted in prominent places in the campus.
- 7) Vulnerable areas in the campus are closely watched by security staff, hostel wardens and anti-ragging squad, day and night.
- 8) Darsana- the on - campus professional counseling centre- takes care of the fresher's need arises.
- 9) Mentoring units with senior students have been formed in all Departments.
- 10) An Anti-ragging undertaking has been obtained from all employees as Departments call for.

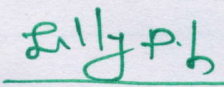

The college is committed and resolved to fight the menace of ragging at all cost. All co-operation is extended to the authorities in the actions they take in this regard.
