What followed was an interesting hands-on workshop by Mr.Jacobi on the topic “The Art of Designing Captivating Powerpoint Presentations”. He began with a refresher on Microsoft and the origins of Powerpoint and moved on to demonstrate and guide the participants to the topic of the day. The 2-hour workshop covered a variety of topics from resizing photographs to create maximum aesthetic appeal down to picking appropriate text length for a simple presentation.

Mr. Nijil Jacobi, on the topic ‘Art of Designing Captivating Powerpoint Presentations’

In all, it was a very informative and highly beneficial workshop for the participants which included First Year UG, Second Year UG, and First and Second Year PG Economics Students.

The workshop winded up with an interactive question and answer session where the participants probed our research person with questions about the ease of use of Powerpoint and other useful features. The session was formally concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Muhseena TM from Second Year Economics.
