

REPORT OF THE INTERNATIONAL WEBINAR ON “EDUCATION AND WOMEN EMPOWERMENT” ORGANISED BY DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS ON 23rd NOVEMBER 2022

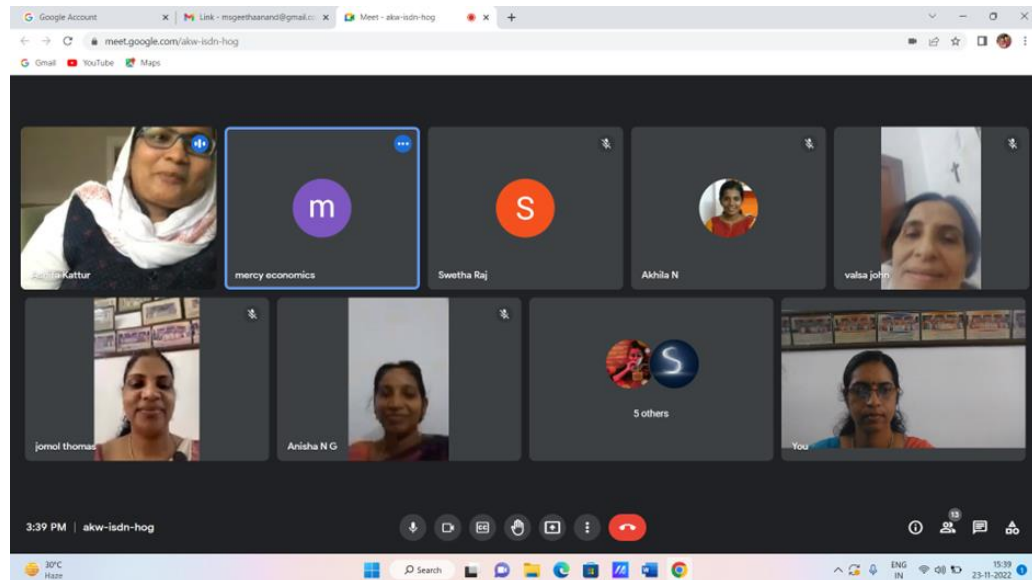

The Department of Economics, St. Joseph’s College (Autonomous) Irinjalakuda & Department of Economics and Sociology of Mercy College, Palakkad jointly organized an International Webinar on “Education and Women Empowerment” on 23rd November 2022. Webinar was conducted through Zoom meet. It was attended by more than 300 students and scholars from India and overseas.

The webinar was started with the official welcome address by Student Representative of the Department of Economics, Mercy College, Palakkad. She has formally welcomed the dignitaries and participants of the webinar. Consecutively Dr. Valsa John C. Associate Professor, Unaided PG. Programme Coordinator, Department of Economics, St. Joseph’s College (Autonomous) Irinjalakuda gave felicitated the International Webinar.

Webinar enriched with the eminent resource person Dr K M Ashifa, Assistant Professor in Social work in Nistanbul university, Istanbul, Turkey. Resource person was the prominent alumna from the Department of Economics of St. Joseph's College. Woman is entitled to live in dignity and freedom. Empowering women is also an indispensable tool for advancing development she focused to promote awareness about the need of empowerment in these postmodern worlds through some videos of eminent personalities and some cine clips. Students are enriched with the valuable lecture of the resource person.

After the presentation of the resource person an active interactive session takes place. Concluding Remarks of the webinar end up with the formal vote of thanks given by Dr. M S Geetha, Department of Economics, St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Irinjalakuda.